

The Greatest Explorers

Enquiry Question: Who were the greatest explorers?

Key Vocabulary		Sticky Knowledge
Explorer	A person who travels to and explores a new place.		Ibn Battuta was born in Morocco in 1304. He spent 29 years travelling around the world. This led to him being known as 'the travelling man'.
Map	A map is a picture of a place to help us find the important places.		Captain Cook: James Cook was a captain and explorer who, in 1770, sailed to New Zealand and Australia.
			Captain Scott: An explorer who led two expeditions to the South Pole.
Discover	Find something new.		In 1911, Roald Amundsen won the race to reach the South Pole before Captain Scott.
Equipment	The things you need to do something.		Sunita Williams is an American astronaut. She went on her first journey into space in 2006 on the shuttle Discovery . She has held records for the largest number of space walks by a woman.
Astronaut	A person who goes into space.
Memorial	Something to remember a person or event (statue).
Significant	Something important.		